

NESHAMA: ASSOCIATION OF JEWISH CHAPLAINS PRESENTS

JEWISH VIEWS OF DEATH, DYING AND THE AFTERLIFE:

50 YEARS AFTER KUBLER-ROSS

Underwritten by the generous support of Mount Sinai Memorial Parks and Mortuaries

✕ Oct. 25th, 9AM - 5PM ✕

*Hosted by the Academy for Jewish Religion
California 574 Hilgard Ave, Los Angeles, CA 90024
(UCLA Hillel Building)*

Registration:

Cost $36, including kosher lunch

$54 for live-stream
registration

954-660-2078

info@najc.org

Featuring:

Rabbi Dr. Anne Brener, author of Mourning and Mitzvah

Rabbi Dr. Rachel Adler, author of Engendering Judaism: A New Theology and Ethics. A forthcoming book, *Pour Out
Your Heart Like Water: Jewish Perspectives on Suffering*, is under contract with Oxford University Press

Reb Simcha Raphael, Ph.D., author of Jewish Views of the Afterlife, Founder and Director, DAAT Institute for Death
Awareness, Advocacy & Training

Len Lawrence, General Manager, Mount Sinai Memorial Parks and Mortuaries

Rabbi Dr. Elliot Dorff, author,
Matters of Life and Death, A Jewish Approach to Modern Medical Ethics

Panel Discussion:

Rabbi Jason Weiner, BCC,
Director of the Cedars-
Sinai Spiritual Care Department,
President of the Board of Rabbis of
S. California

Rabbi Rochelle Robins, V.P. and Dean of the Chaplaincy School,
The Academy for Jewish Religion,
CA.

Joel Kushner, PsyD. Director, HUC/
JIR Kalsman Institute on Judaism and Health

Rabbi Dr. H. Rafael Goldstein, BCC, Executive Director of Neshama: Association of Jewish Chaplains

Sponsors:

MEMORIAL PARKS AND MORTUARIES
A Jewish Family Tradition

Neshama: Association of Jewish Chaplains

CEDARS-SINAI

